On a plane with a group of most of you have never taking the Metrolink to you will stay in a GREAT hotel (did I mention the pool?). Now, you're there. You spend the next several days with 10,000 other teens who are there to Worship Jesus, get to know new friends from the United States and Canada, and go to awesome excellent workshops in areas that interest you—hosted by professionals in your area—and then having opportunities to try out what you have learned. Next up, you go to the evening Worship time and hear great speakers and top bands. Imagine the opportunity to be in a place with everybody focused in one direction—Jesus!! Later on, during the late night activities there will be places for student bands in coffee houses and park settings—giving you time to hang with your friends. Then you go to bed and start all over again the next day!

On Monday following NYC, we will all go to Six Flags for a day of rides, water and friends. This will give you opportunity to try out the things you've been exposed to during the week. On Tuesday, we fly home. That is when you really make a difference back at home!
