

January 20th - 22nd

Trinity Pines

Camp cost: $80

“The Band” with Cheri and friends

Chris Reiter, Speaker

Middle & High School

Fill out the flyer and turn it into your church by January 9th!

BRING: a friend or three, BEDDING, all the clothes you'll need for the weekend, toiletries, a monkey, games to entertain yourself during free time, ski/board equipment [if you're doing that], clothes for the “outdoors” [it will be cold], and anything else you can't live without for the weekend.

DON'T BRING: anything illegal, anything that you'd be sad about if it gets lost/stolen/or broken, a monkey, weapons of any kind, drugs, alcohol, rock and or roll, CELL PHONES, personal video game devices, TVs, mini-DVD players, ipods, music players, lederhosen, cigarettes or other tobacco products ... you get the picture ... we are getting away from it all and you'll be reunited with it all soon enough!

WHAT TO DO FOR FREE-TIME—Check with your Pastor/youth leader first, they may have something exciting to do with you as a group.

Otherwise—enjoy the cold winter air outside with tubing at the camp, snowshoeing, snow angels—for those insiders the game room will be open, games with friends, read a great book, make musical joyful noise together.

Skiing/ Boarding at Tamarack—bring your own equipment, probably can rent less down the mountain or obtain a half day pass for less. Cost is $39 for half -day pass at Tamarack

Activity Barn in McCall—$10 +tax per person for an hour. All students must have a libability form signed—go to web site to down load. www.activitybarn.com

You will also have an opportunity to do a prayer walk on the camp grounds during this time as well. Informatin will be given at retreat.

Worship Band: “The Band” with Cherie Reiter and friends. Cherie and friends love coffee and worshipping God! Come hear Cherie and friends bring worship with you before God, drawing close to the Almighty .

Speaker: Chris Reiter loves the outdoors, hiking, rock-climbing, spending time with his wife (Cherie, from “The Band”) and kids and sharing conversations about God. Chris has been a youth pastor in Idaho and Washington and is now starting up a church in the Northend of Boise.
